PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

It will be a memorable day for the Sacramento valley should a succession of warm rains set in now, with the Sierra packed with snow to an unprecedented depth.

The educational institution for young ladies known as the College of Notre Dame has again opened in Marysville for the reception of boarding scholars.

Four sensitive nightwalkers at Bodie published a card denouncing the Standard for its offer of a chronometer to the first garret who would catch an officer out late at night.

Ben Welch, who was overcome by the heat in the Sutter Tunnel some two weeks ago, died Friday morning at Sutter. His remains will be sent to Marysville, Cal., for interment.

During the year 1879 there were mailed from the San Francisco Post Office 3,107,988 postal cards and 8,906,284 letters. The newspapers mailed by publishers and news agents numbered 9,474,000.

Sunday was the fifth day of the walking match at Nevada City, and at 10 p. m. the score stood: Sadie Donley, 250 miles; Alice Donley, 220 miles; Lulu Sifton, 187 miles; Daisy Robinson, 250 miles.

George Faith of Petaluma, in an encounter with George Collins last Tuesday night, had a finger badly bitten by the latter. Tetanus was the result, and Faith's case is now considered hopeless by his physicians.

At Bodie about 12 o'clock Saturday night Bill Witherell shot and fatally wounded Charlie Slade, a well-known "sport," the trouble arising from an ill-feeling existing between the parties for some time past. The doctors say Slade cannot live.

A hydraulic company in Yuba county is using the Cranston elevator—have 308 feet pressure, to the pipe that works machine—and are now raising the dirt 81 feet, but can, by using a larger nozzle and more water, raise the dirt 40 feet.

Quite a remarkable change of opinion concerning the V. & T. R. R. Company is taking place in Dayton, says the Lyon County Times. Until recently the feeling against the railroad was very bitter; but since the survey for the Bodie road was commenced the revision has been great.

In San Jose last week a girl named Bellenagel, aged eleven years, had her thigh bone fractured near the hip, while being turned over in bed. The girl has been sick with typhoid fever, and was convalescing when the accident occurred. The result proved that the bone was as brittle as a pipe-stem.

Malta, Colorado, has a novel lawsuit. One Crosby bought of one Arlo Davis his wife, for whom he paid $25. After living with her about a week, the son of Davis, at the instigation of his father, put Crosby out of possession, whereupon the said Crosby brings an action to recover his $25 purchase money.

The five-mile sculling match between Daniel Leahy and Henry C. Hoyt for $1,000 a side came off on Sunday near San Francisco and was witnessed by thousands of people. Leahy won in 34 minutes and 30 seconds—the best five-mile time on record. Leahy is a professional, and Hoyt is a Marine engineer for the Mechanics Exchange.

Says the Anaheim Gazette: "It is twenty-five years since so much snow was seen on the foothills. Mr. Langenberger informs us that in 1854 or '55 snow fell freely in the valley, the Bureau ranch was covered therewith. In 1865, after a heavy fall of snow occurred in Los Angeles, and so heavily did it fall upon the orange trees that some of the branches were damaged."

ABOUT DANCING.

A lot of Baptist Ministers got together the other day in New York and had a talk about the subject of dancing. "The Rev. Mr. Hadden of New York said that it is foolish to attempt to arrest nature. Young persons will have amusements. Because they must."

"The Rev. Dr. Yerkes said, with a shudder of his head, that he 'wasn't so certain that the natural taste for amusements should be gratified. The carnal mind is not subject to the law of God, neither, indeed, can it be. The question is, can amusements help me to get nearer to God, to be better and more useful. To develop strong men and women is not to dandle them on your knee."

"The Rev. Dr. Eddy said that he had helped to expel from his church, a year ago, a young lady who had danced just once at an evening entertainment. He wouldn't do it again. When in Bloomington, Ill., a season arose in prayer meeting one night and asked: 'What shall we do with these people all night?' Another deacon asked: 'What shall we do with these people all night?' The Rev. Dr. Eddy said that he believes that ten thousand people have been driven from Baptist churches in this city in the following manner: 'A young lady dances once or twice. She knows that her pastor has set his face against what she believes to be innocent amusement. She doesn't go to church, and finally drifts away to other communions.'"

It appears from a perusal of the report of the meeting that the Baptists, as a church body, are weakening in their opposition to dancing. Dancing is as old as the vertebrate and while the world keeps warm enough to live in, "youth will have its fling."

TWO REPUBLICANS.

The Carson Tribune thinks as Daniel Webster did fifty years ago, that this government will become too heavy to hold together and will fall to fragments. It says:

"There is no treason in the prediction, for it is coming to be a recognized fact that the gigantic strides civilization is making and the immense area of country the Government has to provide over, renders it an impossibility for the wants of the whole people to receive proper attention from the rulers of the nation. Between those of the East and West there is little in common beyond the personal interests of a few millionaires and corporations. Let it be understood that we are by no means advocating a change in the government of the Pacific States. It is merely a prediction, a sort of prophetic vision to which we have given language. The change is not likely to occur during the present century, but there are those living who will see two distinct governments, divided only by mountain ranges and still one in feeling and patriotism, and the glorious old flag shall wave over one section as well as the other."

GOOD BYE, MONEY.

Referring to the threatened departure of some of our millionaires the Carson Appeal has a rush of good sense which we copy approvingly: "Should the leading capitalists of California leave the coast, there is consolation in the reflection that they cannot take the coast with them. Our boundless resources of soil, our mineral deposits and our climate cannot be carried away by anybody, and the same fortune made here once can be made again. If the people would stop playing at the stock game, by which they are robbed every year of nearly all their savings, and set their faces to the business of developing the country as the horny-fisted New England farmers do, there would soon be more equalized distribution of capital and general prosperity."

GENERAL NOTES.

Gen. G. M. Dodge, chief engineer of the Union Pacific, says that the consolidation of various Pacific railroads, completed last week, will, if anything, tend to make lower rates of transportation; certainly it will not raise them. The Union Pacific will build some new lines, but not so many as the other railroads had not risen so seriously. It would build a portion of the Deadwood line, and a portion of the Oregon line from Oregon toward Snake river. The Texas Pacific does not yet propose the consolidated road, for it drains a different country, and the consolidation are interested in the Texas-Pacific scheme.

The Argonaut, an authority in matters of fashion, says that "ladies now carry daggers in their stockings; and there are men mean enough to pick a quarrel with a pretty woman just to see her go down for her weapon."

The Pennsylvania Republicans held a state convention to-day, to send delegates to the national convention. It is feared that the delegates may be instructed to vote for Grant's nomination.

Everyone expects a good season. There is a little fear of grasshoppers among the farmers, but there is nothing about them being any great numbers this year.

Dip the point of a new steel pen in flame and it will take up the ink and write as well as if it had been used before.

Black Hills districts are alarmed at the increase of diphtheria and pneumonia.

The senate committee reports unfavorably on the Warner bill.

A Very Remarkable Execution.

The recent hanging of Swift Runner, an Indian murderer, at Fort Saskatchewan, Canada, was in a temperature of forty degrees below zero. A gallows had been built out of doors, so that the Indians could see the execution; but when the officers and prisoner arrived at the spot, it was found that the most of the scaffold had been used for firewood by the half-frozen crowd. Swift Runner complacently warmed himself at the fire while the gallows were being repaired. When everything else was ready the nervous hangman said he had forgotten to bring a strap to fasten the prisoner's arms and legs. He offered to save further trouble by killing himself with a tomahawk, but his proposition was rejected, and he to a heavy chain of penmanship, with the noose around his neck, while the messenger was fetching a strap. A priest attempted to give him spiritual consolation, but he said the white man's whiskey had ruined him, and so he couldn't believe in the white man's God. He preferred a death dance by his own people, and while they were performing it, he was hanged.

Artisan Wells in Nevada.

From the Battle Mountain Messenger.

G. A. Paul, contracted with the Nevada Central Railway Company to sink an artesian well 300 feet deep at the southwest corner of their machine shop and round house in this place. He commenced operations last Monday morning and yesterday afternoon had attained a depth of 145 feet. The first forty feet the auger brought up gravel with a little clay, the balance of the 144 feet went through clay, sand and cement, the last being pretty hard. A slight flow of water was encountered at a depth of 130 feet, and at the present depth, 144 feet, the well is flowing a larger stream than any in Battle Mountain. The sinking of these wells shows conclusively what can be done when capital, combined with machinery and skill are brought to bear upon the arid and waste land of our state, and we hope that Congressmen Daggett will succeed in having a bill passed by the present Congress to help us in this work. Successful irrigation means increased production and population.

The Fierce Wolves of Hungary.

Numerous cases of depredations by wolves have recently occurred in Hungary. A band of these animals passed through one of the suburbs of Temeswar, destroying any animal which was not housed. A clergyman who was returning home in a sleigh from a neighboring town was beset by a pack of wolves. He made the driver make all possible speed; but at a sharp turning the sleigh was upset, the clergyman was thrown out, and torn to pieces before the eyes of the terrified driver. In a country village a few wolves came boldly at mid-day into the inn yard and devoured an ass; and at Szalouta a shepherd was killed and eaten as he was passing along the road at night.

Two Railroad Stories.

The conductor of a certain train on the Union Pacific Railroad charges that a fly having alighted on one of the glasses of the engineer's spectacles, the engineer thought it was a buffalo on the track ahead, and turned on the air brakes to avert a disaster. The engineer retorts that one night the conductor saw what he thought was the headlight of an approaching locomotive. He kept his own train waiting awhile, and then, somewhat confusedly, started her. "He is the safest man I ever ran with," says the engineer, "Venus is millions of miles away, and he waited twelve minutes on a side track to allow her to pass."

Cost of Growing Wheat.

A. W. Cox, Santa Maria Valley, Santa Barbara, gives his experience as regards the cost of producing wheat, on which the Bulletin recently asked for statistics. He raised four crops from 1875 to 1879. The soil was a sandy loam. The cost of plowing, seeding, harvesting and sacks, with interest at 10 per cent. on land at $10 per acre, and money invested in teams and machinery, was $7 per acre. The average yield was 850 pounds, which made the cost per cental $1.08. In 1877 he had an entire failure of crops, occasioned by drought; in 1878 and 1879 a partial failure, occasioned by rust and drought. All the labor was hired.

The cook of the carpenter's mess put a coal oil can on the fire full of water to make coffee with, and before the heat from the fire could penetrate through the water it was frozen an inch thick.

The weather last week at Walla Walla, W. T., was inexpressibly delightful. Not a speck of snow in the valley. On the contrary, young grass and green clover are giving Mother Earth a charming appearance. The thermometer is up above 50 every day, and at night falls to touch freezing point.

Says the Colusa Sun: A number of sheep-owners met at Williams on the 21st of January and organized a club, which is called Antelope Valley Club, for the purpose of offering a bounty for coyote scalps. They assessed each 1,000 sheep $10, and offer $15 for each coyote killed or destroyed on the range of any member of the club.

The Yellowstone, Montana, Journal says that over one hundred citizens of that place are hunting buffalo for their hides alone, which sell at $1.50 apiece. Several firms in that town have as high as 4,000 hides cash now on hand, and are buying daily. Jas. White of Yellowstone has killed 200 buffalo this season for their hides alone.

How He Buried His Bad Habits.

From the S. F. Argonaut.

A young gentleman of this city was advised to bury his bad habits. He did so: he procured a bottle of whiskey and a box of cigars, put them in a small coffin, and buried them deep in the earth. He felt so bad that he went off and got drunk, dug up the remains, drank the whiskey, smoked the cigars, and looks upon himself as a reformed inebriate.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen in this vicinity, known to every one as a most influential citizen and a Christian Minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shilo's Consumption Cure." The Word "Goodness."

Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and is composed of two words, Good and Odont. "Good" translated means to preserve, and "Odont" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water. Sold by druggists and perfumers. jan 6 o d t m o d w

SHAEFFER'S ADVERTISEMENT.

DISSOLUTION OF Co-Partnership.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the partnership heretofore existing under the name, style and firm of J. W. SHAEFFER & CO., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business of said firm will be hereafter conducted and carried on by JOHN W. SHAEFFER, who will receipt and liquidate any and all indebtedness due and owing by said firm. JOHN WERNER SHAEFFER, JULIUS KRAEMER.

Dated, San Francisco, Dec. 29, 1878.

In reference to the above,

I desire to notify my customers that I shall carry on the manufacture of Cigars as formerly, on the old premises, and under the old name of J. W. SHAEFFER & Co. My aim in the future, as in the past, shall be to give each and all my patrons a fair and full equivalent for their money, only asking in return promptitude in remitting the values I have given them at the time agreed. It will be my effort to make my long experience (unexcelled as a local manufacturer) more than ever profitable to my customers, by more than usual care in the selection and treatment of the Tobacco, and in nicety of execution in manufacturing. I shall adhere strictly to the determination announced by my firm some months ago, not to employ drummers to effect sales, but rely solely on the merits of my goods, and give all the advantages of reduced expenses to my patrons in lower prices. I shall, however, visit, if possible, personally, or by my former salesman, B. F. Armstrong, all my customers during the year, to ascertain their views, and profit, if I can, by the experience they have gained in handling my goods, as to the wants of the trade and the tastes of consumers. Thanking my friends for past favors so liberally bestowed, I can say, on soliciting their continuance, that I am determined that their views and wishes shall be more freely and exactly gratified in the future. Wishing you a full share of the prosperity in business apparently promised the Coast during the coming year, I am, yours respectfully,

J. W. SHAEFFER.
